A New Beginning \(Cascade City Pack Book 1\)

When tragedy strikes his small band of werewolves whoâ€™d been roaming the countryside in search of a new home after River had been ousted as pack alpha of his old pack, River reluctantly concludes life in Cascade city might be safer. However, tensions within the pack soon escalate when theyâ€™re forced to all live in the apartment rented by Jax, the human lover of David, the packâ€™s second in command. Knowing he needs money to buy better and bigger accommodation for his pack, River disappears for a few days and returns with a bag of gold chips heâ€™s sniffed out from the Cascade River near his old pack grounds. Coyote shifter Fosterâ€™s true mate has made his presence known, but when the coyote alpha finally shows himself, Foster is faced with a difficult decision. Stay with the werewolves and risk his mateâ€™s unhappiness, or leave those heâ€™s come to love as family? Meanwhile, David continues to want to submit to Jax while being alpha to his beta mate, Brooks. Tension in the threesome grows as Jaxâ€™s reluctance to take the bite turns into flat-out refusal. Can their relationship survive this as well as Brooks pregnancy and Davidâ€™s hyper-protectiveness of his werewolf mate? When Josiah suggests the pack admit rogue werewolves, Riverâ€™s desire to please his omega mate wars with his responsibilities to his pack as he questions past decisions and Josiahâ€™s influence on them. Will history repeat itself, leading to the downfall of the newly-formed Cascade City Pack?
